Barmy in Wonderland – When the Cheshire Cat met the Newt.

A talk presented by Sarah Stanfield

Emsworth Community Centre

Thursday, March 7th

7.30pm (doors open at 7pm)

Lewis Carroll was a paradigm shifter in Victorian Children's literature, who excited the imaginations of his young readers, and none more so than one Pelham Greville Wodehouse. Unexpected links between the two authors began to emerge on close examination of their lives and literary output.

Tickets: £5.00 each -All seats are unreserved
